Electronic Communication Disclosures

Electronic Communication and Confidentiality

It is important that you do not use e-mail or other electronic means to request, authorize or effect the purchase or sale of any security, to send fund transfer instructions, to effect any other transactions or to send time sensitive instructions. Any such request, orders, or instructions that you send will not be accepted nor processed by Manning & Napier. In addition, you should be aware that ordinary (unencrypted) e-mail sent through the Internet is not secure. Do not use email to send us confidential or sensitive information, such as social security numbers or other important information. Your e-mail message is not private in that it is subject to review by the Firm, its officers, agents and employees. Nothing in this material constitutes investment, legal, accounting or tax advice, or a representation that any investment or strategy is suitable or appropriate for your individual circumstances. Any discussions of past performance should not be taken as an indication of future results, and no representation, expressed or implied, is made regarding future results. You should consider the specific return and risk profile of any investment or strategy before effecting, or agreeing to effect, any transaction.

Opt-out Notice

Should you provide us with your email address, or if you have done so in the past, we may upon occasion send you an email to notify you of new products or services available either via our website or directly from the firm. Email sent through Manning & Napier will be maintained in a manner consistent with our legal and regulatory requirements regarding client and public communications.

You may opt out of receiving emails from Manning & Napier at any time. To discontinue emails, please reply to the email and place “Remove From Email” in the subject line or call us as listed below. Email communication and any attachments may contain proprietary, confidential, or privileged information. If you are not the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that you have received the email in error and that any review, disclosure, dissemination, distribution or copying of it or its contents is prohibited. The sender does not waive confidentiality or any privilege by mistransmission. If you have received the email in error, please notify the sender immediately, delete the email completely from your computer system, and destroy all copies and any attachments.

Third-Party Vendor Notice

All third party vendors, product suppliers or counterparties should be aware that formal approval by an authorized signatory is required in order to bind Manning & Napier Advisors, LLC and its affiliates (together, Manning & Napier) to any material financial commitment. To the extent you are dealing with an individual employee at MNA you are hereby notified that such employee is required to obtain approval by an authorized signatory prior to MNA entering into any written agreement, purchase order, or other financial commitment.

Research Department Communication

Information contained herein may be used only for specific business purposes that would benefit the clients of Manning & Napier and shall not be construed as a recommendation to buy or sell a security.
